

Sharing A Centenary with Others: 1922 -2022

Auckland Justices of the Peace Association Inc congratulates two other Justice of the Peace Associations, Wanganui and Taranaki who also celebrate their centenary this year. Others, also founded in October 1922, share the milestone:

Mt Albert Grammar School

First train service between Auckland and Whangarei

State Forest Service

First transmission in N.Z. by a licensed radio station, 1YA in Symonds Street

King's School, Remuera

Poppy Day

Opening of Waiuku branch railway line, now the Glenbrook Vintage Railway

Auckland Electric Power Board, now morphed to what is now Mercury (the generator and seller of energy) and Vector, (the lines company distributing the energy).

Auckland Zoo

New Zealand Historical Association

Wesley College, Paerata

New Zealand Federation of University Women

Foodstuffs: Four Square, Pak'NSave, New World

Bible College of NZ, now Laidlaw College

New Zealand Historical Association

Auckland City Council starts converting street-lights from gas to electricity

The Correspondence School, now Te Aho o Te Kura Pounamu

Kowhai Junior High School, Kingsland, the first Intermediate School in NZ

Direct shipping service to Manchester, England, opening up new markets for NZ dairy produce

RCC November 2022